

Encountering Jewish Rome

An Initiative of the University of Notre Dame Rome Global Gateway, promoting the preservation of the Jewish historical heritage in the city, as well as teaching, undergraduate and graduate research, internships, public lectures, and partnerships in the field of Roman Jewish Studies.

A Special Day

Scenes from Jewish Rome in 1938: when history passed by via Celimontana

by Claudio Della Seta

Screening and discussion

Wednesday, November 20, 2019

6 PM

Walsh Aula - Rome Global Gateway - Via Ostilia, 15

Speakers:

Claudio Della Seta

Silvia Haia Antonucci - Manager of the Historical Archives of the Roman Jewish Community, "Giancarlo Spizzichino"

Claudio Procaccia - Director of the Department of Cultural Heritage and Activities of the Roman Jewish Community

With a testimony by Mrs. Mirella Fiorentini

Guided visit of the Villa at Via Celimontana, 23 at 5 PM with prior registration: rome@nd.edu or 06. 772643100.